

DISSEMINATION EVENT AND OUTCOMES OF THE IMPLEMENTATION OF VALEU-X PROJECT AT “FAN S. NOLI” UNIVERSITY

In June 27, 2022 into the premises of the Faculty of Education and Philology an activity, within the VALEU-X project, was organized to appreciate the contribution of students participating in virtual learning courses during the period January - June 2022, held at "Fan S. Noli" University within the Erasmus + project, VALEU-X.

The Deputy Rector in Charge of Projects and Research, dr. Benita Stavre praised the work and the serious commitment of professors and students in this project, which aimed changing the perspective of organizing lesson classes through virtual learning.

The project coordinators, prof. Eric Schoop and prof. Mattis Altmann, of Dresden University of Technology, praised the work of students and professors of our University as the best example, involved in the implementation of this project, which helped the process of digitalization of higher education institutions.

The meeting was also greeted by the head of the Department of Foreign Languages, Phd. Daniela Stoica. She emphasized the importance of the project in increasing the digital capacity of "Fan S. Noli" University.

The professors, who were engaged in this project, dr. Erjola Qfzezi and dr. Dorela Kaçauni presented their experiences on working with students, focused on the establishment and operation of a virtual translation center and international virtual collaborative learning.

The following students were awarded certificates:

Anisa Mulla, Dhimitrula Vangjel, Elena Macolli , Esmeralda Mersinllari, Gjergji Llaci, Jona Shalcanji, Kristina Dajko, Megi Hysaj, Megi Topi, Rossela Plasari, Ruxhena Hasani, Sara Zguri, Xhorxhina Haxhillari, Anisa Duro , Xhulja Zenunllari, Ambra Xhuti, Elsa Bregu, Ledjona Malelli, Petrika Kristo, Ergestina Çeçi.